A. GENERAL

FOREWORD

Commissioners for Oaths have an important role to play in the proper completion of legal documents in the Northwest Territories.

The services of a Commissioner for Oaths are required for the completion of various documents. It is of the utmost importance that Commissioners comply with the statutory requirements regarding the administration of oaths and the taking of affidavits.

Every Commissioner may administer oaths and take and receive affidavits, statutory declarations and affirmations for use in the Northwest Territories.

TERMS OF APPOINTMENT

The Minister of Justice, under section 73 of the Evidence Act, appoints Commissioners for Oaths.

Section 76(1) of the Evidence Act says that appointments are for a three-year period. However, section 76(2) allows a commission to be limited in terms of area, duration or purpose, so not all appointments have to be for three years. By section 86, an appointment can be revoked at any time.

Appointments made for three years expire at midnight on the last day of the third year from when they are made. For example, an appointment made on June 20, 2000 will expire at midnight on June 19, 2003. An individual may apply to renew their appointment by sending a completed application, examination and fee to the Office of the Administrator.

Section 138 of the Criminal Code of Canada makes it an offence to sign a document as being sworn or declared before you when it was not. The maximum penalty is imprisonment for two years.

B. DEFINITIONS

An affidavit is a sworn or written declaration made before a competent authority (like a Commissioner for Oaths)

An affirmation is a solemn declaration by a person who declines to take an oath

A Commissioner for Oaths is a person appointed by the Minister of Justice under section 73 of the Evidence Act, for a period of three years, with the ability to administer oaths or affirmations to persons completing legal documents for use in the Northwest Territories.

The declarant is the person who makes the declaration

A declaration is an open or formal announcement

The deponent is the person who is swearing to or affirming the truth of the contents of the documents

A jurat is the part of the document that is completed by the Commissioner for Oaths; it should include where, when and before whom it was sworn

An oath is a formal declaration or attestation in support of a pledge or promise

A statutory declaration is a solemn declaration made by a person unable to take an oath; it should be in the form and manner provided for by the Evidence Act, and is used in situations where statutes and regulations do not mention or do not allow the use of an affidavit.

AFFIDAVITS

An affidavit is a document containing a statement that is verified by an oath or by affirmation of the person making the statement.

An affidavit must be authorized by either a statute or regulation This means that the statute or regulation says an affidavit should be used.

Affidavits are often used in court cases.

Example of an Affidavit Verified by Oath

Affidavit of Jane Doe
I, Jane Doe, of the City of Yellowknife in the Northwest Territories, make an Oath and say:
1. That ...
2. That ...
3. That ...
_____ (Signature of Jane Doe)
Sworn before me at the City of Yellowknife, in the Northwest Territories, this ____ day of ____, 20__.
_____ (Commissioner's Signature) A Commissioner for Oaths in and for the Northwest Territories.
_____ (Commissioner's stamp or printed name) My commission expires on _____.

Example of an Affidavit Verified by Affirmation

Affidavit of Jane Doe

I, Jane Doe, of the City of Yellowknife in the Northwest Territories, solemnly affirm and declare:

1. That ...
2. That ...
3. That ...

(Signature of Jane Doe)

I certify that Jane Doe satisfied me that she was a person entitled to affirm.

Affirmed before me at the City of Yellowknife, in the Northwest Territories, this ____ day of ____, 20__.

(Commissioner's Signature)

A Commissioner for Oaths in and for the Northwest Territories.

(Commissioner's stamp or printed name)

My commission expires on _____.

STATUTORY DECLARATIONS

A statutory declaration is a document containing a statement that is verified when the person making the statement solemnly declares that it is true.

A statutory declaration is made pursuant to the Canada Evidence Act. It is used in situations where statutes and regulations do not mention or do not allow the use of an affidavit.

Statutory declarations are often used in court cases.

Example of a Statutory Declaration

Declaration of John Doe I, John Doe, of the City of Yellowknife, in the Northwest Territories, do solemnly declare as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1.2.3. and I make this solemn declaration consciously believing it to be the true and knowing that it is of the same force and effect as if made under oath. _____ (Signature of John Doe) Declared before me at the City of Yellowknife, in the Northwest Territories, this ____ day of ____, 20__. _____ (Commissioner's Signature) A Commissioner for Oaths in and for the Northwest Territories. _____ (Commissioner's stamp or printed name) My commission expires on _____.

JURATS

The jurat is the part of the oath, affirmation or declaration that must be completed by the Commissioner for Oaths.

A jurat should include:

- The date of swearing, affirming or declaring;
- The place where the document was sworn, affirmed or declared (this proves that the commissioner was acting within his/her jurisdiction – the NWT);
- The name of the Commissioner before whom the document was sworn, affirmed or declared.

The jurat should also state whether the person swore an oath, affirmed or declared that the document was true.

- In the case of an oath, it should include the words “Sworn before me”
- In the case of an affirmation, it should include the words “Affirmed before me”
- In the case of a declaration, it should include the words “Declared before me”

C. HOW TO ADMINISTER AN AFFIDAVIT OR STATUTORY DECLARATION

Affidavits and statutory declarations are used for the purpose of establishing legal rights or authenticating documents.

A person administering an oath, affirmation or solemn declaration may be called into court to establish that it was properly administered. If the proper procedure is not followed, the document might not be legally valid. As a result, it is imperative to follow the proper procedure in all occasions.

It is also important to satisfy yourself that the person swearing the affidavit or statutory declaration understands their duty to tell the truth.

AFFIDAVITS

The manner of administering an oath for an affidavit can be found in sections 21(a), 21(b) and section 22 of the NWT Evidence Act.

A) SWORN USING AN OATH

Process of Swearing an Affidavit Using an Oath

- Make sure the wording in the introduction of the affidavit states, “make an oath and say”.
- Establish the identity of the person. If you do not personally know the person, ask if they are the one named in the affidavit and ask for identification (driver’s license, etc.).
- Have the person read the affidavit. If the affidavit is already signed, ask the person to sign it again in front of you.
- Hand the person a bible or a New Testament (Old Testament if the person is of the Jewish faith).
- Address the person as follows:
 - “Do you swear that the contents of this your affidavit are true, so help you God?”
- The person responds, “I do”.
- You must then complete the jurat.

B) BY AFFIRMATION

An affirmation is to be used if the person objects to being sworn. The person must state the reasons for not wanting to be sworn and they must be one of the following:

- (a) Conscientious scruples;
- (b) Religious belief;
- (c) Taking an oath would have no effect on his/her conscience.

The manner of administering an affirmation for an affidavit can be found in section 23(1) of the NWT Evidence Act.

By section 23(4) of the NWT Evidence Act, an affirmation has the same force and effect as swearing an oath.

Process of Affirming an Affidavit

- Make sure that the introduction of the affidavit states, “solemnly affirm and declare”.
- Establish the identity of the person. If you do not personally know the person, ask if they are the one named in the affidavit and ask for identification (driver’s license, etc.).
- Have the person read the affidavit. If the affidavit is already signed, ask the person to sign it again in front of you.
- Address the person as follows:
 - “Do you solemnly affirm and declare that the contents of your affidavit are true?”
- The person responds by saying, “I do”.
- You must certify that the person satisfied you that he or she was entitled to affirm by inserting the following:
 - “I certify that _____ satisfied me that he/she was a person entitled to affirm.”
- You must then complete the jurat.

STATUTORY DECLARATIONS

Process of Solemnly Declaring a Statutory Declaration

- Establish the identity of the person. If you do not personally know the person, ask if they are the one named in the affidavit and ask for identification (driver's license, etc.).
- Have the person read the affidavit. If the affidavit is already signed, ask the person to sign it again in front of you.
- Hand the person a bible or a New Testament (Old Testament if the person is of the Jewish faith).
- Address the person as follows:
 - “Do you make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing it to be true and know that it is of the same force and effect as if made under oath?”
- The person responds, “I do”.
- You must then complete the jurat.

D. THE PROPER COMPLETION OF JURATS

The jurat is the part of a document that is completed by the Commissioner for Oaths.

A Commissioner for Oaths in and for the Northwest Territories

(Name must be printed or stamped above)

My Commission expires _____

SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

A) WHERE THE INDIVIDUAL SWEARING IS BLIND OR ILLITERATE

If the person making the affidavit or statutory declaration is blind or illiterate, you must (in addition to the normal procedure of swearing, declaring or affirming):

- Read the document, or ask someone else to read the document;
- Ask the person if he/she understood what was read to him or her; and
- Amend the jurat in a manner similar to the example below.

Example of Amended Jurat for an Individual who is Blind or Illiterate

As _____ is blind/Illiterate
(Name of deponent or declarant)

(a) This affidavit/statutory declaration was read to him/her in my presence,

(Signature of the Commissioner for Oaths)
A Commissioner in and for the Northwest Territories

(b) (Name must be printed or stamped above)

My Commissioner for Oaths
Appointment expires _____

B) WHERE THE INDIVIDUAL SWEARING IS HEARING OR SPEECH IMPAIRED BUT CAPABLE OF READING

If the individual swearing the document is hearing or speech impaired but capable of reading, the Commissioner for Oaths should (in addition to the normal procedure of swearing, declaring or affirming):

- Ask the individual to read the document;
- Ask the person if he/she understood what they read; and
- Amend the jurat in a manner similar to the example below.

Example of Jurat where the Person Swearing is Hearing or Speech Impaired

Sworn/Affirmed/Declared before me at the City/Community/Hamlet/Town of _____ in the Northwest Territories this ____ day of ____, 20__. by the above named _____, who (name of deponent/declarant) being hearing/speech impaired but capable of reading, read over the above written instrument and when he/she appeared perfectly to understand it, signed his/her name in my presence. _____ (Signature of the Commissioner for Oaths) A Commissioner for Oaths in and for the Northwest Territories _____ (Name must be printed or stamped above) My Commissioner for Oaths Appointment expires _____

C) WHERE THE INDIVIDUAL SWEARING IS HEARING OR SPEECH IMPAIRED AND INCAPABLE OF READING

In the case of an individual who is hearing or speech impaired and incapable of reading:

1. A person competent to interpret the contents of the affidavit or statutory declaration in a sign language that is known to both the impaired individual and the interpreter must be sworn using the following oath:

“Do you swear that you well understand _____ (the type of sign language), t hat you will well and truly interpret the contents of this affidavit/statutory declaration to _____ (name of person) and that you will well and truly interpret to him/her the oath/affirmation/solemn declaration about to be administered to him/her, so help you god.” _____ (Signature of the Commissioner for Oaths) A Commissioner for Oaths in and for the Northwest Territories _____ (Name must be printed or stamped above) My Commissioner for Oaths Appointment expires _____

Note: In the case of an affirmation or solemn declaration, “so help you god” is omitted.

2. The Commissioner for Oaths then administersthe oath, affirmation or declaration in English, and the interpreter repeats it in sign language to the individualswearing the document.
3. The individual should then say “I do” using sign language and the interpreter should translate this to the Commissioner for Oaths.
4. The jurat must be completed by the Commissioner for Oaths.

Example of Amended Jurat where the Individual Swearing is Hearing or Speech Impaired and Incapable of Reading

Sworn/Affirmed/Declared before me at the
City/Community/Hamlet/Town of _____ in the Northwest Territories this ____ day of ____, 20__.

through the interpretation of _____
(Name of Interpreter)
of the city/community/hamlet/town of _____ (residence of interpreter)

in the province/territory of _____,
(residence of interpreter)

said _____ having been first sworn truly and
(name of interpreter)

faithfully to interpret the contents of this
affidavit/affirmation/declaration to the deponent/declarant, and truly
and faithfully, to interpret the oath/affirmation/declaration about to be administered to them.

(Signature of the Commissioner for Oaths)
A Commissioner for Oaths in and for the Northwest Territories

(Name must be printed or stamped above)

My Commissioner for Oaths
Appointment expires _____

D) WHERE THE INDIVIDUAL SWEARING IS VERY YOUNG OR OLD IN AGE

If the person making the affidavit or statutory declaration is very young or very old, their ability to understand the significance of their oath, affirmation or declaration may be at issue. In these cases, the Commissioner for Oaths must:

- Read the document, or ask someone else to read the document;
- Ask the person if he/she understood what was read to him or her; and
- Amend the jurat in a manner similar to the example below.

Example of Amended Jurat when the Capacity of the Individual Swearing is an Issue

As _____ is _____ years of age,
(Name of deponent or declarant)

This affidavit was read to them in my presence;

I have satisfied myself that _____ understands the nature of oath and the duty of speaking the truth.
(Name of deponent or declarant)

(Signature of the Commissioner for Oaths)
A Commissioner for Oaths in and for the Northwest Territories

(Name must be printed or stamped above)

My Commissioner for Oaths
Appointment expires _____

E) WHERE THE COMMISSIONER FOR OATHS DOES NOT SPEAK THE LANGUAGE OF THE INDIVIDUAL SWEARING

If the person making the affidavit or statutory declaration does not understand English:

1. A person competent to interpret the contents of the affidavit or statutory declaration must be sworn using the following oath:

“Do you swear that you well understand _____ (the language of the person), that you will well and truly interpret the contents of this affidavit/statutory declaration to _____ (name of person) and that you will well and truly interpret to him/her the oath/affirmation/solemn declaration about to be administered to him/her, so help you god.” _____ (Signature of the Commissioner for Oaths) A Commissioner for Oaths in and for the Northwest Territories _____ (Name must be printed or stamped above) My Commissioner for Oaths Appointment expires _____

Note: In the case of an affirmation or solemn declaration, “so help you god” is omitted.

2. The Commissioner for Oaths then administers the oath, affirmation or declaration in English, and the interpreter repeats it to the individual swearing the document in the language that the individual speaks.
3. The individual should then say “I do” in that language. The interpreter should translate this to the Commissioner for Oaths.
4. The jurat must be completed by the Commissioner for Oaths.

Example of Jurat when the Commissioner for Oaths does not Speak the Language of the Individual Swearing

Sworn/Affirmed/Declared before me at the
City/Community/Hamlet/Town of _____ in the Northwest Territories this ____ day of ____, 20__.

through the interpretation of _____
(Name of Interpreter)
of the city/community/hamlet/town of _____
(residence of interpreter)

in the province/territory of _____,
(residence of interpreter)

said _____ having been first sworn truly and
(name of interpreter)

faithfully to interpret the contents of this
affidavit/affirmation/declaration to the deponent/declarant, and truly
and faithfully, to interpret the oath/affirmation/declaration about to be administered to them.

(Signature of the Commissioner for Oaths)
A Commissioner for Oaths in and for the Northwest Territories

(Name must be printed or stamped above)

My Commissioner for Oaths
Appointment expires _____

ALTERATIONS

If there are any alterations, cross-outs or erasures on an affidavit or statutory declaration (including the jurat) the Commissioner for Oaths must:

- Place a check mark at the beginning and end of each change; and
- Initial on both sides of each change.

UNLESS CHANGES ARE AUTHENTICATED BY YOUR INITIALS, THE AFFIDAVIT OR STATUTORY DECLARATION MAY NOT BE VALID, AND MAY BE REJECTED.

Example of Alteration Made on John Doe's Affidavit

J.D. ✓ fourth day of February ✓ J.D. I did on the fifth day of January, 2010

RESWEARING, REAFFIRMING OR REDECLARING

An affidavit may require reswearing, reaffirming or redeclaring, although this is rare. Any affidavit can be resworn as long as it has not been used, but a second jurat must be completed. This second jurat must have the word “resworn”, ”reaffirmed” or “redeclared”:

Example of Resworn/Reaffirmed/Redeclared Jurat

Resworn/reaffirmed/redeclared before me at the City/Community/Hamlet/Town of _____ in the Northwest Territories this ____ day of _____, 20__.

EXHIBITS

Often, an affidavit will contain other documents or copies of documents that are attached as exhibits.

When there are exhibits, each should be marked as follows:

Example of a Marked Exhibit

“This is exhibit (A, B, #1, #2 etc.), referred to in the affidavit/statutory declaration of _____ sworn/affirmed/declared (Name of deponent or declarant) before me this ____ day of ____ 20 ____. _____ (Signature of Commissioner for Oaths) A Commissioner for Oaths in and for the Northwest Territories

Whenever possible, this should be on a blank part of the exhibit or on the back of it.

TWO OR MORE DEONENTS OR DECLARANTS

In the case where an affidavit or statutory declaration is being sworn by more than one individual, the word “severally” should be placed at the beginning of the jurat:

Example of Jurat when there are Two or More Individuals Swearing

Severally sworn/affirmed/declared before me at the City/Community/Hamlet/Town of _____ in the Northwest Territories this ____ day of ____, 20__.
_____ (Signature of the Commissioner for Oaths) A Commissioner for Oaths in and for the Northwest Territories
_____ (Name must be printed or stamped above)
My Commissioner for Oaths Appointment expires _____

WHAT MUST BE INCLUDED IN THE JURAT

You must sign the document and legibly print or stamp your name as well as the complete date your appointment expires. Also be sure to write “Commissioner for Oaths in and for the NWT”.

Remember, The expiry date is always one day before and three years after the date your certificate was issued.

E. DOCUMENTS FOR USE OUTSIDE THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

When an affidavit or statutory declaration is to be used outside the Northwest Territories, it must be administered by a Notary Public.

A Commissioner for Oaths cannot swear an oath for use outside the Northwest Territories by section 75 of the NWT Evidence Act.

F. CERTIFYING TRUE COPIES OF DOCUMENTS

A Commissioner for Oaths cannot certify true copies of documents. Only a notary public has this power.

G. SITUATIONS WHERE THE INDIVIDUAL SWEARING IS NOT PRESENT

Under no circumstances may a document be sworn when the individual swearing it is not present.

Section 138 of the Criminal Code of Canada makes it an offence to sign a document as being sworn or declared before you when it was not. The maximum penalty is imprisonment for two years.

H. RELEVANT SECTIONS OF THE NWT EVIDENCE ACT

- Section 1 gives definitions of words used in the Act
- Sections 20-23 give procedural details regarding oaths and affirmations
