Form 10 – Articles of Reorganization

- Section 1 Set out the full legal name of the corporation. If the amendment involves a change to the name of the corporation, the name provided in this section must be the corporation's name prior to the change.
- Section 2 Set out the details of the amendments to the Articles, in accordance with the court order, and pursuant to Section 194 of the Act. Numbering and wording must be specific, and must align with numbering and wording of the Articles on file with the Registry; in any case of discrepancy, the Articles on file with the Registry are considered to be the governing document.
- Changes to the Articles of the corporation must be made in accordance with Sections 29 and 179 of the BCA.
  - Amendments must each specifically reference and correspond with the appropriate provision of the Articles being amended (e.g. item, section, subsection, paragraph, clause, etc.), and exact wording must be used.
  - If the amendment involves a change to the name of the corporation, the new name must comply with sections 10 and 12 of the Business Corporations Act and the corporate names provisions of the Business Corporations Regulations; OR
  - if the amendment involves a change to become a number name ("numbered company"), when setting out the amendment, leave a blank space to the left hand side of the new name; type or neatly hand write the words "Northwest Territories" or "N.W.T.", and add the legal element of your choice, such as Inc., Ltd., Corp. etc. (e.g. _____ N.W.T. Inc.).
  - If the amendment involves a change to the NWT municipality specified in the articles, only the municipality within the Northwest Territories must be noted; a complete specific address must not be provided.
- Signatory Section A Director or Officer of the corporation must date and sign the form with their original signature; the title of the person signing must be provided. The signature on the submitted form must not be a copy, a stamp, or an electronic signature.
