REASONS FOR DECISION

Date of the Hearing: September 1, 2005

Place of the Hearing: Rae, NT

Appearances at Hearing: Robert Richardson, representing the applicant
Albertine Washie, respondent

Date of Decision: September 1, 2005

REASONS FOR DECISION

The applicant alleged that the respondent had breached the tenancy agreement by failing to pay rent and by disturbing other tenants in the residential complex. The applicant sought an order requiring the respondent to pay the alleged rent arrears and terminating the tenancy agreement between the parties. The premises are located in a four unit residential complex and are subsidized public housing.

The applicant provided a copy of the tenant ledger in evidence which indicated a balance of rent owing in the amount of $467.91. The applicant also provided a notice dated March 2, 2005 outlining complaints received about parties and loud noises in the respondents' premises. The notice does not set out any particular dates of the alleged disturbances but warns the respondent that disturbances are a breach of the Residential Tenancies Act. The notice seeks vacant possession of the premises by March 31, 2005. The applicant stated that the police were summoned to the premises on one occasion and broke the door in order to gain entry. The respondent has paid for the door repair.

The respondent did not dispute the rent arrears or the disturbances. She stated that she had completed a treatment program and intended to pay her rent promptly. She stated that she was seeking employment and wanted to move to premises which were more quiet.

Although details of the alleged disturbances are lacking, I am satisfied that some degree of disturbance has occurred. I find the respondent in breach of her obligation to pay rent and to not disturb other tenants. I find the rent arrears to be $467.91. In my opinion, this tenancy agreement should be permitted to continue provided reasonable arrangements are made to pay the rent arrears and there are no future disturbances.

An order shall issue requiring the respondent to pay the applicant rent arrears in the amount of $467.91, requiring the respondent to comply with her obligation to not disturb other tenants, to not create any disturbances in the future and to pay future rent on time. Should any further disturbance occur or the rent arrears are not paid in a reasonable period of time, the applicant may file a future application seeking termination of the tenancy agreement.
