REASONS FOR DECISION

Date of the Hearing: January 15, 2008

Place of the Hearing: Yellowknife, NT

Appearances at Hearing: Julia O'Brien, representing the applicant

Date of Decision: January 15, 2008

REASONS FOR DECISION

The respondent was served with a Notice of Attendance sent by registered mail and confirmed delivered. The respondent failed to appear at the hearing and the hearing was held in her absence.

The applicant alleged that the respondent had breached the tenancy agreement by failing to pay rent and by failing to provide the full amount of the required security deposit. The applicant sought an order requiring the respondent to pay the alleged rent arrears and terminating the tenancy agreement unless the rent arrears and the balance of the security deposit were promptly paid.

The applicant provided a statement of account in evidence which indicated a balance of rent owing in the amount of $1184. The statement also indicates that only $650 of the required security deposit has been paid. The tenancy has been in effect for more than three months, making the whole amount of the security deposit due and payable. The required security deposit is $1090.

I find the statement in order and find the respondent in breach of her obligation to pay rent and her obligation to provide the required security deposit. I find the rent arrears to be $1184 and the balance of the security deposit to be $440. In my opinion there are sufficient grounds to terminate the tenancy agreement unless the rent arrears and security deposit are paid.

An order shall issue requiring the respondent to pay the applicant rent arrears in the amount of $1184 and terminating the tenancy agreement on February 15, 2008 unless the rent arrears, the balance of the required security deposit and the rent for February, 2008 in the total amount of $2797 are paid in full. I calculate that amount as follows:

Rent arrears	$1184
Outstanding security deposit	440
February, 2008 rent	1173
Total	$2797

Should the tenancy agreement continue, the respondent is also ordered to pay future rent on time.
