REASONS FOR DECISION

Date of the Hearing: June 28, 2011

Place of the Hearing: Paulatuk, NT via teleconference

Appearances at Hearing: Keith Dowling, representing the applicant
Irene Ruben, respondent

Date of Decision: June 28, 2011

REASONS FOR DECISION

The applicant testified that the tenancy agreement between the parties was terminated by order (file #20-11890, filed on April 6, 2011) on April 15, 2011 when the respondent failed to satisfy the order by paying the outstanding rent. The applicant testified that the respondent was still in possession of the premises and sought an order evicting the respondent and requiring her to pay compensation for use and occupation of the premises after the tenancy agreement was terminated on April 15, 2011. The premises are subsidized public housing.

The respondent did not dispute the allegations.

I find that this tenancy agreement was terminated in accordance with the Residential Tenancies Act and find the respondent to be overholding. Accordingly, the respondent is liable for compensation for use and occupation of the premises at the full unsubsidized monthly rental rate of $3424.

The respondent was assessed $230 for the month of April, 2011 based on her household income.

Therefore the compensation for the period April 16-30 is $1596.90 calculated as follows:

Fifteen days at the full unsubsidized rent minus fifteen days at the full unsubsidized rent equals compensation for April 16-30 or,

$$(15 \text{ days} \times $114.13) - (15 \text{ days} \times $7.67) = $1596.90$$

Total compensation for the period April 16, 2011 to the hearing date, June 28, 2011 is $8216.63

calculated as follows:

April 16-30 compensation	$1596.90
May compensation	3424.00
June 1-28 compensation	3195.73
Total to June 28/11	$8216.63

For each day the respondent continues to occupy the premises the compensation is $114.13 for each additional day in June, 2011 and $110.45 for each additional day in July and August, 2011.

An order shall issue requiring the respondent to pay the applicant compensation for use and occupation of the rental premises from April 16 to June 28, 2011 in the amount of $8216.63 plus the per diem rates listed above for each additional day she remains in possession of the premises.

An eviction order will issue separately.
