REASONS FOR DECISION

Date of the Hearing: February 19, 2014

Place of the Hearing: Yellowknife, NT

Appearances at Hearing: Wendy Hackett, representing the applicant

Date of Decision: February 19, 2014

REASONS FOR DECISION

The respondent was sent a Notice of Attendance by registered mail. At the time of the hearing there was no confirmation of receipt but Canada Post confirmed that a notice had been left with the respondent on February 4, 2014 advising him that the item was available for pick-up. The respondent failed to appear at the hearing and the hearing was held in his absence. The applicant stated that the respondent was still in possession of the premises. In my opinion, it is not unreasonable to deem the Notice of Attendance served pursuant to section 71(5) of the Residential Tenancies Act.

The applicant alleged that the respondent had breached the tenancy agreement by failing to pay rent. The applicant sought an order requiring the respondent to pay the alleged rent arrears and terminating the tenancy agreement and evicting the respondent.

The applicant provided a statement of the rent account which indicated a balance of rent arrears in the amount of $1799. The monthly rent for the premises is $1405 and the applicant holds a security deposit of $1300.

The applicant stated that they would agree to continue the tenancy provided the rent arrears and the March rent were paid in full on or before March 15, 2014.

I find the statement in order and find the rent arrears to be $1799. In my opinion, there are sufficient grounds to terminate the tenancy agreement unless the rent arrears are promptly paid.

An order shall issue requiring the respondent to pay the applicant rent arrears in the amount of $1799 and terminating the tenancy agreement on March 15, 2014 unless the rent arrears and the rent for March, 2014 in the total amount of $3204 are paid in full.

An eviction order to be effective on March 16, 2014 unless the rent arrears and the rent for March, 2014 in the total amount of $3204 are paid in full on or before March 15, 2014 shall be issued separately.
