REASONS FOR DECISION

An application to a rental officer made by Northwest Territories Housing Corp. as the applicant/landlord against Jason Horesay and Charlene Bonnetrouge as the respondents/tenants was filed by the Rental Office June 9, 2014. The application was made regarding a subsidized public housing residential tenancy agreement for the rental premises known as Unit #H-0005 in Fort Providence, Northwest Territories. The applicant personally served a copy of the filed application on the respondents June 18, 2014.

The applicant alleged the respondents had accumulated rental arrears. Evidence submitted is listed in Appendix A attached to this order.

A hearing was scheduled for August 21, 2014, by three-way teleconference. Ms. Yvonne Burke appeared representing the applicant. Mr. Jason Horesay and Ms. Charlene Bonnetrouge appeared as respondents.

Ms. Burke testified that the respondents were parties to a residential tenancy agreement for subsidized public housing. The respondents have accumulated rental arrears in the amount of $14,614. Ms. Burke acknowledged that the respondents had been diligent over the last several months in making payments against their rental arrears. The applicant advised their request for an order for payment of rental arrears was precautionary in nature, intended only for enforcement should the respondents discontinue making regular payments towards the rental arrears.

The respondents acknowledged their debt for rental arrears and did not dispute the amount alleged. They indicated they understood the applicant's intended use of an order for payment of rental arrears and were not opposed to it.

Tenancy agreement

The residential lease agreement entered into evidence by the applicant is for a subsidized public housing tenancy between the parties. I am satisfied a valid tenancy agreement is in place in accordance with the Residential Tenancies Act (the Act).

Rental arrears

The lease balance statement entered into evidence by the applicant represents the landlord's accounting of monthly subsidized rent and payments received on the respondents' rent account. There was no dispute from the respondents on the balance of rental arrears reflected. I am satisfied the lease balance statement accurately reflects payments received on the respondents' rent account. I find the respondents have accumulated rental arrears in the amount of $14,614.

An order will issue requiring Mr. Jason Horesay and Ms. Charlene Bonnetrouge to pay rental arrears in the amount of $14,614.
