REASONS FOR DECISION

Date of the Hearing: February 1, 2011

Place of the Hearing: Yellowknife, NT

Appearances at Hearing: Rosetta Morales, representing the applicant
Veronique Bezha, respondent

Date of Decision: February 1, 2011

REASONS FOR DECISION

The tenancy agreement between the parties will be terminated by order on February 11, 2011 unless the respondent pays the applicant rent arrears of $5684 on or before that date.

In my opinion the eviction is justified unless the rent arrears are paid in full. Three previous orders have been issued for non-payment of rent and the respondent has been ordered to pay the monthly rent on time. The arrears represent over three months of unpaid rent.

Section 62(3)(a) of the Residential Tenancies Act permits an applicant to seek a termination order and an eviction order with a single application.

The applicant is willing to continue the tenancy agreement provided the rent arrears are promptly paid. Section 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act permits a rental officer to include this condition on an eviction order.
