REASONS FOR DECISION

Date of the Hearing: March 3, 2016

Place of the Hearing: Tuktoyaktuk, NT via telephone

Appearances at Hearing: Lucille Pokiak, representing the applicant

Patricia Voudrach, respondent
Jonas Lucas, respondent

Date of Decision: March 3, 2016

REASONS FOR DECISION

The applicant alleged that the respondents had breached an order requiring them to pay the monthly rent on time plus an additional $400/month until rent arrears were paid in full. The applicant sought an order requiring the respondents to pay the remaining balance of rent arrears in full and terminating the tenancy agreement and evicting the respondents. The premises are subsidized public housing.

The applicant provided a tenant ledger in evidence which indicated a balance of rent owing of $10,154.52. The applicant testified that a payment of $1000 had been made March 2, 2016 that was not recorded on the statement, bringing the balance owing to $9154.52.

A previous order (file 20-9331, filed on January 12, 2007) required the respondents to pay the monthly rent plus an additional $400/month until the rent arrears of $12,464.62 were paid in full. Had the respondents satisfied the order, the rent arrears would now be reduced to $0. Instead the rent arrears are $9154.52. Clearly the previous order has been breached.

The respondents did not dispute the allegations and stated that they planned to pay the remaining arrears before the end of April.

The applicant expressed their willingness to continue the tenancy agreement provided the respondents made a reasonable effort to make regular payments of rent and retire the arrears. The applicant suggested that the tenancy agreement be terminated by order on June 30, 2016 to give the respondents an opportunity to demonstrate their willingness to address the arrears.

I find the respondents in breach of their obligation to pay rent and find the rent arrears to be $9154.52. In my opinion, there are sufficient grounds to terminate the tenancy agreement. In my opinion, the landlord is entitled to a termination order and the choice as to whether to enforce it or not should be theirs. I shall not, however, issue an eviction order at this time. The landlord may apply for an eviction order at a later date if necessary.

An order shall issue requiring the respondents to pay the applicant rent arrears of $9154.52 and terminating the tenancy agreement on June 30, 2016 unless those rent arrears are paid in full.
