REASONS FOR DECISION

Date of the Hearing: March 3, 2016

Place of the Hearing: Tuktoyaktuk, NT via telephone

Appearances at Hearing: Lucille Pokiak, representing the applicant
Brian Larman, representing the applicant

Date of Decision: March 3, 2016

REASONS FOR DECISION

The respondent was served with a Notice of Attendance sent by registered mail and confirmed delivered. The respondent failed to appear at the hearing and the hearing was held in her absence.

The applicant alleged that the respondent had breached an order requiring her to pay the monthly rent on time plus an additional $100/month until rent arrears were paid in full. The applicant sought an order requiring the respondent to pay the remaining balance of rent arrears in full and terminating the tenancy agreement and evicting the respondent. The premises are subsidized public housing.

The applicant provided a tenant ledger in evidence which indicated a balance of rent owing of $9061.21.

A previous order (file 20-13495, filed on July 23, 2013) required the respondent to pay the monthly rent plus an additional $100/month until the rent arrears of $11,653.44 were paid in full.

Had the respondent satisfied the order, the rent arrears would now be reduced to $7253.44.

Rent arrears at previous hearing	$11,653.44
less 44 months x $100/month	(4,400.00)
Total	$7,253.44

Instead the rent arrears are $9061.21. Clearly the previous order has been breached.

The applicant expressed their willingness to continue the tenancy agreement provided the respondent made a reasonable effort to make regular payments of rent and retire the arrears. The applicant suggested that the tenancy agreement be terminated by order on June 30, 2016 to give the respondent an opportunity to demonstrate her willingness to address the arrears.

I find the respondent in breach of her obligation to pay rent and find the rent arrears to be $9061.21. In my opinion, there are sufficient grounds to terminate the tenancy agreement. The respondent agreed to the previous order but has not paid the arrears in accordance with that order. In my opinion, the landlord is entitled to a termination order and the choice as to whether to enforce it or not should be theirs. I shall not, however, issue an eviction order at this time. The landlord may apply for an eviction order at a later date if necessary.

An order shall issue requiring the respondent to pay the applicant rent arrears of $9061.21 and terminating the tenancy agreement on June 30, 2016 unless those rent arrears are paid in full.
